

CLASS V GRAMMAR CHAPTER 3 Transitive and Intransitive Verbs: (Write these exercises in the book as well as in the copy)

A Pick out the verbs from the following sentences and say whether they are transitive or intransitive. Point out the subject of each verb and the object of a transitive verb.

1. Jaya was sleeping soundly.(intransitive)
2. Maya loves flowers. (transitive)
3. He has written many poems on spring. (transitive)
4. Birds have built their nests in that tree.(transitive)
5. Sunflowers are yellow in colour. (intransitive)
6. Ravi has put your books on the table. (transitive)
7. These dishes have been cooked by my sister. (transitive)
8. We shall never forget your kindness. (transitive)
9. Raveena purchased some vegetables from the market. (transitive)
10. Which chapters has your new teacher taught you? (transitive)
11. The blue sea sparkled in the sun. (intransitive)
12. The match was won easily by our team. (transitive)
13. Why have you not polished your shoes? (transitive)
14. The snake slid into a hole. (intransitive)
15. A speech was delivered by our Principal on Independence Day. (transitive)

Directive and Indirect objects:

Pick out the verbs from the following sentences. Point out (a) their subjects and (b) objects, if any. In the case of transitive verbs with more than one object, mention which are direct and which indirect objects.

1. The Fairy Queen gave the princess two gifts. (the fairy Queen-subject gave-verb princess-indirect object two gifts-direct objects)
2. The gardener has planted many flowering bushes. (the gardener-subject has planted-verb flowering bushes-direct object)

3. Some of the flowers in the pots were red and violet. (flowers-subject were-verb)

4. The police asked the guards many questions about the robbery. (the police-subject asked-verb the guards-indirect object robbery-direct object)

5. Grandma told us a frightening story of ghosts and demons. (grandma-subject told-verb frightening story og ghosts and demons-direct object)

6. The hive was full of honey. (the hive-subject was-verb)

7. The rooms have been decorated for the party tonight. (the rooms-subject have-verb)

8. All the boys seemed happy and cheerful. (all the boys-subject seemed-verb)

9. We shall come back home before evening.(we-subject come verb)

10. Do not give your dog soft bones.(give-verb dog-indirect object soft bones-direct object

11. Who can count all the stars in the sky? (who-subject can-verb stars-direct object)

12. My friends gave me a box of chocolates on my birthday.(my friends-subject gave-verb me-indirect object chocolates-direct object)

13. The weather here has now become very pleasant.(the weather-subject become-verb)

14. Rita cooked us a delicious meal.(Rita-subject cooked-verb us-indirect object delicious meal-direct object)

15. This picture has been painted by Meena.(this picture-direct object has been painted-verb Meena-subject)

16. The poet gave his poem a long title. (the poet-subject gave-verb poem-indirect object title-direct object)

17. Soon after the earthquake, the villagers rebuilt the entire village.(the villagers-subject rebuilt-verb the entire village-direct object)

18. Please give me a cup of coffee. (give-verb me-indirect object a cup of coffee-direct object)

19. We were taught English grammar by our father.(we-indirect object taught-verb English grammar-direct object father-subject)

20. Our father taught us English grammar.(our father-subject taught-verb us-indirect object English grammar-direct object)