

Class IV Chapter 4 literature Florence Nightingale

A. Mark these statements as True (T) or False (F)

1. The narrator was a soldier in the Crimean War. true

The narrator met Florence Nightingale at a hospital in England. false

The hospital where the narrator was taken was very clean. false

4. Florence's parents were very excited that she decided to become a nurse. false

5. There was a huge decrease in deaths after Florence cleaned up hospitals. true

B. Answer these questions:

1. Who is the narrator of the story and how did they know Florence Nightingale?

A. The narrator of the story is CG Salamander. He came to know Florence Nightingale when he was just a boy and fought in the Crimean war, where he was injured and brought to a hospital in Turkey.

2. Who is the narrator telling this story to?

A. The narrator is telling the story to the children.

3. What can the narrator still remember clearly after all these years?

A. The narrator can still remember clearly the smell in the hospital, where there were rats and flies everywhere.

4. How did Florence talk to the wounded soldiers?

A. Florence spoke to the wounded soldiers in a kind and respectful manner.

5. When did Florence know she was needed on the battlefield?

A. Florence knew she was needed on the battlefield, when she heard about the Crimean war and the horrible state of the British hospitals.

C. Think and answer:

1. Which image in the comic shows you that Florence was called The Lady with the Lamp? What words in the story tell you how the narrator feels about Florence?

A. The third image on the first page shows us that she was called the lady with the lamp. For the first time in their lives, she made invalids feel respected.

2. Why do you think people didn't like Florence bossing them around? Have you ever been in a situation where someone was telling you to do something that you didn't want to? How did you respond? (HOMEWORK)

A. Write the anagrams of these words.

1. now won

2. flow wolf

3. listen silent

4. bare bear

5. east seat

6. lane lean

7. dare read

8. alert later

B. Now, think and write any four words that are palindromes.

1. Anna 2. civic 3. mom 4. noon

A. Fill in the blanks with the correct comparatives of the words given in brackets.

1. A tiger is bigger than a fox. (big)

2. Delhi's roads are wider than Lucknow's. (wide)

3. Anamika is taller than her friend. (tall)

4. Her brother is younger is than her. (young)

5. This monument is older than Qutub Minar. (old)

B. Choose the correct degree of adjectives to complete these sentences.

1. My brother is the youngest in the family.
a. young b. younger than c. the youngest
2. I think Mohammed Ali was the best boxer in the world.
a. good b. better c. the best
3. Mumbai is larger than Delhi in area.
a. large b. larger than c. the largest
4. My mother usually gets up earlier than my father.
a. early b. earlier than c. the earliest
5. June is the hottest month in India.
a. hot b. hotter than c. the hottest

Language Lab (homework)

A. Listen to the conversation between a doctor and a patient and answer the questions.

1. What is the patient suffering from?
2. What were the symptoms that the patient told the doctor about?
3. Where did the patient go for his project? Describe the place.
4. What did the doctor tell the patient about the disease and medicine?
5. What did the doctor prescribe?