

Around the world in pancakes date: 3.8.20

class IV literature chapter 6

A. State whether the following sentences are True (T) or False (F). Then, write the correct statements for the incorrect ones.

1. The act of people cooking and coming together for a meal is uncommon. false
2. There are many differences in the way pancakes are made. true
3. American or British pancakes are usually made using modern flour. true
4. In African countries like Ethiopia, Eritrea and Somalia, people make bitter pancakes. false
5. In France, there are four common styles of making pancakes. false

B. Answer these questions.

1. Why is the kitchen the one room that all homes have?

A. The kitchen is the one room that all homes have because cooking or rather food is an important part of what brings and keeps people together.

2. What is a pancake?

A. A pancake is a cake made on a pan. People from different parts of the world use different ingredients, different techniques and even different utensils to make a pancake.

3. What are the few common features of all the pancakes?

A. A few common features of all pancakes are they are made using a liquid batter, spread and cooked on a heated flat surface. They are simple, fun to make and eat.

4. How would have early humans prepared pancakes?

A. Early humans would have prepared pancakes using a very old form of wheat which was rough and coarse, added water, ferns and cattails and spread on a hot flat surface.

5. "The overall result is a substantially yummiier pancake than our caveman ancestors would have eaten!" What makes modern pancakes better?

A. Modern pancakes are better as they are made with milk, eggs and proper cooking utensils. They are also very tasty and nutritious too.

6. Why are pancake recipes different in different parts of the world?

A. Pancakes are made differently in different parts of the world as wheat does not grow well everywhere and as other food grains are easily available or grown everywhere. That is why different ingredients are used in different parts of the world to make different pancakes.

C Think and answer.

1. The author believes that food brings and keeps people together. What are your views on this?

A. The author believes that food brings and keeps people together as because we invite our friends and relatives and they invite us for lunch or dinner and this brings us together.

2. Do you agree with the author that food can motivate us to travel? Give reasons.

A. Yes, food can motivate us to travel as we can eat different kinds of food in different countries as we travel.

3. What is the underlying message in the story of the pancakes?

A. The underlying message of the pancakes is that it is a simple dish, that is fun to make and eat.

Choose the correct participle to fill in the blanks.

1. The dissatisfied employees left their jobs.

2. I love to see the rising sun.

3. We were served boiled eggs for breakfast.

4. The broken window can fall any day.

5. They are beginning a new chapter.

B. Work in pairs. Fill in the blanks.

1. Rita will teach me mathematics.

2. I will now read my book.

3. There is a beach near my house.

4. My mother told me to clean my room.

5. During the monsoon, the ceiling began to leak.

6. The bird pecked at the seed with its beak.

Homework page 52 word wonder, page 54 exercise C do it yourself.

Learn all the meaning from all chapters are already given including this chapter.